• The Last Queen

By Damien Ounouri & Adila Bendimerad

Algeria, 1516. The pirate Aroudj Barbarossa frees Algiers from the tyranny of the Spanish and seizes power over the kingdom. Rumor has it he murdered King Salim Toumi despite their alliance. Against all odds, one woman will stand up to him: Queen Zaphira. Between history and legend, this woman's journey tells of a struggle, of personal and political turmoil endured for the sake of Algiers.

*Damien Ounouri is an Algerian-French director based in Algiers. He studied cinema theory, developing its practical application as a self-taught skill. Adila Bendimerad is an Algerian actress, scriptwriter, and producer. As an actress she has worked with renowned Middle Eastern directors including Merzak Allouache and Georges Hachem. In 2011, she founded the production company Taj Intaj aiming to promote young Algerian talents. After his documentary Fidaï (TIFF, 2012), Ounouri directed the short film Kindil El Bahr cowritten with Bendimerad and produced by Taj Intaj (Cannes Directors' Fortnight, 2016). The Last Queen is the duo's directorial debut.*

• Top Dogs

By Julien Guetta

Antoine and Christian, two long-estranged brothers from Normandy, couldn't be more different from each other: while the former is happily married with two kids and a successful boat driver, the latter is a facetious globe-trotting hustler who likes to engage in bar fights. But when Antoine starts getting involved in sleazy activities, Christian flies to his rescue. In an unexpected bonding-adventure they take upon themselves to defend the family they thought they'd never be.

Graduated from La Fémis in 2019, Julien Guetta directed several short films such as Le Vacant selected in Competition in Clermont-Ferrand in 2011. After co-signing scripts for long features and winning of the Emergence and Anger Workshop in 2017, he wrote and directed his first feature film The Troubleshooter starring Eric Judor and Laure Calamy which was acclaimed by the critics. Top Dogs, his second feature with Jean-Paul Rouve (Les Tuche) and Grégoire Ludig (Mandibles), is produced by Nolita.

Cast Jean-Paul Rouve, Michel Blanc, Grégoire Ludig

● We, Students!

By Rafiki Fariala

"A warm and insightful documentary about friendship and the situation of students at the University of Bangui" Cineuropa

Nestor, Aaron, Benjamin and Rafiki are economics undergraduates at the University of Bangui. Navigating between the overcrowded classrooms, the petty trades that allow students to survive, bribery lurking everywhere, Rafiki shows us what students lives are like in the Central African Republic, a shattered society where the youth keeps dreaming for a brighter future for their country.

Born in 1997 in DRC, Rafiki Fariala arrived early in the Central African Republic where his parents took refuge because of the war. Entirely self-taught, he started developing his voice and composing music early on and is now one of the promising figures of Bangui's musical scene under the pseudonym RAFIKI - RH20. At a workshop, he directed his first film, Mbi na Mo, which was selected at the Biarritz FIPADOC and many other festivals.

● Bambi, a French Woman

By Sébastien Lifshitz – DIRECTOR'S CUT

From the day she was born in Algiers, Marie-Pierre has always wanted to wear dresses and has stubbornly refused her given name: Jean-Pierre.

At the age of 17, her life takes a major turn when she comes upon a drag show on tour: le Carrousel de Paris. Marie-Pierre becomes Bambi, and within a few years establishes herself as a legendary figure of the Parisian cabaret scenes of the 50s and 60s. By collecting the story of one of the first transgender women, Sébastien Lifshitz continues his work initiated with Wild Side and Little Girl and portrays a forceful personality.

This updated version of the film extends and deepens the short-film released in 2013 to become the feature-length version the director has always dreamt of making.

● My Neighbors' Neighbors

By Anne-Laure Daffis & Léo Marchand

*"A stunning artistic power" Première
"A patchwork full of craziness and poetry" Télérama

In a French building, the inhabitants seem to be dealing with the hazards of life: an ogre breaks his teeth on the very same day of the annual Ogre Feast, while being asked to watch over his neighbor's kids; a magician cuts his assistant in half and her legs run off; a hiker and his dog spend several days stuck in the elevator; an old man falls in love with a pair of legs...

A truly imaginative animation film about the intertwined destinies of these unusual neighbors and their neighbors' neighbors.

Anne-Laure Daffis and Léo Marchand both graduated in plastic arts from the Sorbonne University and started directing their first movies together, two shorts and a documentary, before moving on to animation. They have been working together ever since and My Neighbors' Neighbors is their first feature film.

● The Lost Souls of Syria

By Stéphane Malterre & Garance Le Caisne

Stolen from the Syrian regime's secret archives, 27000 photos showing bodies of civilians detainees tortured to death are made public by a military defector codenamed Caesar. Who are the dead, what was their fate, why have they disappeared in Bashar Al Assad's prisons? All across Europe, victims' families, helped by international lawyers, activists and Caesar himself, seek for truth and justice, investigating the Syrian death machine and its highest officials. But torn between western governments' political agenda and the ongoing terror spread by Damascus dictatorship, how far will they go?

Stéphane Malterre and Garance Le Caisne are French journalists who both studied Syria in their respective previous works. While Malterre made a dozen documentaries for TV, the latest of which having been filmed in Syria for three years and premiering at Fipadoc, this is Le Caisne's first feature documentary after working on the Syrian regime's crimes for ten years.

MATRIX, Inside & Out •

by Benjamin Clavel

In 1999, a unique cinematographic object shook an entire generation and reached the top of the box-office world-wide. The Matrix saga was born and quickly became a pop-culture phenomenon revealing a duo of filmmakers: the Wachowskis. Its prophetic aspects will be at the heart of this unprecedented documentary. By propelling the audience into the 21st Century, it foresaw many social and political issues of our current times: use of technologies, hacking, gender and identity issues, fake news, conspiracy-theory... Forging ahead, the Wachowskis' cinema has been leading a global fight for emancipation, inspiring generations in their quest for truth, choice and freedom.

• U-96, The True Story of "Das Boot"

By Raphaël Millet

The international success of the film Das Boot by Wolfgang Petersen made the U-96 one of the most famous submarines in cinematic history. But the true story of one of Hitler's most fearsome U-boats and its crew goes far beyond fiction. For the first time, this documentary sheds light on the reality behind the fiction through exclusive interviews with the makers and actors of Das Boot, as well as the last survivors of the time. In doing so, this documentary explores how Hitler's propaganda images may have influenced the visual and narrative force of Das Boot.
