FOUR DAUGHTERS •

Between light and darkness stands Olfa, a Tunisian woman and the mother of four daughters. One day, her two older daughters disappear. To fill in their absence, the filmmaker Kaouther Ben Hania invites professional actresses and invents a unique cinema experience that will lift the veil on Olfa and her daughters' life stories. An intimate journey of hope, rebellion, violence, transmission and sisterhood that will question the very foundations of our societies.

FACING DARKNESS

BY JEAN-GABRIEL PÉRIOT

The Siege of Sarajevo lasted from April 1992 to February 1996. Young men were called up to protect their city, a few of them chose to take along their cameras to face the violence they witnessed throughout those grueling 1,425 days.

Now, 30 years later, they show us their films and share their wartime filming experiences and thoughts on cinema as a means of survival and resistance.

MENOPAUSES •

BY JULIE TALON

All women go through menopause and yet it is a subject that we rarely hear about. Talking about menopause, the changes and uncertainties it brings, undeniably breaks the taboo that surrounds women's bodies. This documentary goes to the heart of this question: do women have an expiration date once they are no longer fertile?

Through the eyes of several women, Menopauses will approach this transitional period with a great deal of humor and realism, telling openly and without pathos personal stories about how to live and reinvent life during this phase.

MOTHERSHIP

BY MURIEL CRAVATTE

In the heart of the Mediterranean Sea, the Ocean Viking crew rescues refugees in mortal danger, huddled in their makeshift crafts, fleeing a Libyan hell. Once rescued, often in perilous conditions, they are welcomed on the ship where they receive first aid and are then accompanied to a safe port. On this boat, like a refuge within a refuge, is a place of listening and care reserved exclusively for women and children: we call it The Shelter. For exiles in distress to be rescued in the name of human rights and the law of the sea, a constant tug of war is in play in the Mediterranean between the authorities and humanitarian organisations.

THE MATRIX, INSIDE & OUT •

BY BENJAMIN CLAVEL

In 1999, a unique cinematographic object shook an entire generation and reached the top of the box-office world-wide. The Matrix saga was born and quickly became a pop-culture phenomenon revealing a duo of filmmakers: the Wachowskis. Its prophetic aspects will be at the heart of this unprecedented documentary. By propelling the audience into the 21st Century, it foresaw many social and political issues of our current times: use of technologies, hacking, gender and identity issues, fake news, conspiracy-theory... Forging ahead, the Wachowskis' cinema has been leading a global fight for emancipation, inspiring generations in their quest for truth, choice and freedom.

WE HAVE A DREAM

BY PASCAL PLISSON

Who said living with disabilities meant giving up one's greatest dreams? Across the world, Pascal Plisson met Maud (France), Charles (Kenya), Nirmala and Khendo (Nepal), Xavier (Rwanda) and Antonio (Brazil): extraordinary children who will prove that love, inclusive education, humour and courage can move mountains, and that fate is sometimes full of surprises.

FOREPLAY •

BY JULIE TALON

With the advent of smartphones and social media, the demonstration of first love excitement has changed drastically in recent decades. The first kiss is no longer a rite of passage, but is gradually replaced by foreplay: caresses, touching, fellatio, cunnilingus... All these gestures of affection and seduction shape the codes of a "new love order" of the 21st century, shaping societal norms as we know them. By giving voice to the "real experts" concerned with the issue - teenagers and young people aged 12 to 23 - this tender documentary offers us a realistic portrait of today's sexualities, opening up discussions about respectful relationships.

In 1928, Virginia Woolf wrote Orlando, the first novel in which the main character changes sex in the middle of the story. A century later, trans writer and activist Paul B. Preciado decides to send a film letter to Virginia Woolf: her Orlando has come out of her fiction and is living a life she could have never imagined.

BY ALEXANDER ABATUROV

In the summer 2021, an exceptional heatwave and drought led to giant fires that ravaged 19 million hectares of land in northeastern Siberia. In this region at the heart of the taiga lies the village of Shologon soon to be blanketed by a thick cloud of smoke. Spread by the wind, the black ashes carry alarming news: the forest is on fire and the flames are fast approaching. The government having left them to fend for themselves, the inhabitants must rally to fight The Dragon.

27,000 photos of civilian detainees tortured to death were stolen from the Syrian regime's secret archives by a military defector codenamed Caesar and made public in 2014. Director Stéphane Malterre and his co-author and historical advisor, Garance Le Caisne, investigated to what extent international justice proves impotent in prosecuting the criminal Syrian state. As the case seems doomed to oblivion, the victims' families, along with activists and Caesar himself, seek truth and justice through state courts across Europe instead. More than five years of investigation and struggles will lead to the first trial against the high officials of the Syrian death machine.

GREEN CITY LIFE •

How do we build the city of tomorrow? One that combines the benefits of the countryside with the advantages of the urban world? Manon and François, two young city dwellers, traveled between Mexico, Europe, and the US in search of concrete and revolutionary initiatives at every scale that bring nature back to the heart of cities. Accompanied by associations, business leaders, and city experts, they provide inspiring ideas to propel cities into the 21st Century: from revegetation to urban farming and biowaste recovery. By making the link between all these solutions, they offer us their vision of what the green city of tomorrow could be, calling on government, private companies, and citizens to take action.

THE SECRETS OF THE 1941 GREEN TICKET ROUNDUP •

BY VIRGINIE LINHART

Few people know that before the infamous Vel d'Hiv Roundup, the French government committed other similar raids. The first one, the 'Green Ticket Roundup' perpetrated in 1941, was a turning point in the deportation of Jews during WWII.

80 years after, this largely forgotten event resurfaces, as a hundred photos taken by the German propaganda services have just been found.

Looking back at this dark day, during which 3,700 Jews were arrested before being transferred to Auschwitz camp, this investigation will reveal the origin of these images. How were these pictures, the only ones showing the roundups, discovered? Who is their renowned photographer?

U-96, THE TRUE STORY OF "DAS BOOT" ●

BY RAPHAËL MILLET

The international success of the film $Das\ Boot$ by Wolfgang Petersen made the U-96 one of the most famous submarines in cinematic history. But the true story of one of Hitler's most fearsome U-boats and its crew goes far beyond fiction. For the first time, this documentary sheds light on the reality behind the fiction through exclusive interviews with the makers and actors of $Das\ Boot$, as well as the last survivors of the time. In doing so, this documentary explores how Hitler's propaganda images may have influenced the visual and narrative force of $Das\ Boot$.

THE GIRL IN THE FOUNTAIN
BY ANTONGIULIO PANI771

With Monica Bellucci

The film retraces Anita Ekberg's outstanding and chaotic life, that of an actress consumed by her own iconic image and her famous performance in Fellini's $L\alpha$ Dolce Vita. By including reenacted scenes by another icon, Monica Bellucci, it draws a double portrait of actresses and eras.

SABINE WEISS, ONE CENTURY OF PHOTOGRAPHY •

BY CAMILLE MÉNAGER

In nearly a century, Sabine Weiss (1924-2021) has left behind a monumental and eclectic work: thousands of faces, collections of the greatest fashion designers in prestigious magazines, a Parisian working-class now disappeared, photoreports around the world... By focusing on the margins of society, she was an exceptional witness of the 20th century. For the first time, a film draws the portrait of this hard-worker artist and captures the last words of the greatest female figure of the Humanist photography (Robert Doisneau, Henri Cartier-Bresson).

BY PRISCILLA PIZZATO

Narrated by Catherine Deneuve

Written by an unknown 18-year-old girl, Bonjour Tristesse was described as a masterpiece of cynicism and cruelty when it hit the headlines in 1954. Who is its author Françoise Sagan, who is said to have real but immoral talent? How did she capture so precisely the youth of her time, telling the aspirations of the post-war generation, anticipating sexual liberation, end of traditional family model, feminism, etc. that exploded during the 'May 68' protests? Through archives, interviews with Sagan and readings by Catherine Deneuve, let's look back at this cornerstone of literature history that continues to resonate with today's society.
