WHEN THE LIGHT BREAKS

BY RÚNAR RÚNARSSON

When the light breaks on a long summer's day in Iceland. From one sunset to another, Una, a young art student encounters love, friendship, sorrow and beauty.

Rúnar Rúnarsson's feature career starts in 2011 when he presents his debut film Volcano at the Directors' Fortnight in Cannes. The film receives 17 international awards in a vast number of festivals. His second feature Sparrows (2015) also has an impressive festival run, with 20 international awards and la Concha Ora, the main prize at the San Sebastian Film Festival. Four years later, after being selected for the Cannes Atelier, his third feature film Echo premieres at the Locarno Film Festival, and wins 6 international awards.

Alongside those feature films, Rúnar Rúnarsson has also been acclaimed for his shorts. The crossroads trilogy The Last Farm (Oscar® nomination in 2006), 2 Birds (Cannes Official Selection and European Film Awards nomination in 2008) and Anna (Cannes Directors' Fortnight) have received over 100 international awards.

THIS LIFE OF MINE

BY SOPHIE FILLIÈRES

Barberie Bichette, known to her biggest despair as Barbie, may have been beautiful, a good mother, a reliable colleague, a great lover, yes, perhaps... but that was before she predictably and inevitably turned 55 (and much more to come!). Now, things are getting darker, sometimes violent and often absurd. How then will she deal with her own self, others, and simply life in general?

A graduate of the Fémis directing school, Sophie Fillières made a name for herself with her first short film, Des filles et des Chiens (awarded the Prix Jean Vigo in 1992). She went on to write and direct 7 feature films, selected at Berlin, Locarno and Toronto. Sophie Fillières passed away in July 2023 shortly after shooting her final film This Life of Mine, and asked her children Agathe and Adam Bonitzer to complete it with her close collaborators. This Life of Mine will have its world premiere at the 2024 Directors' Fortnight.

THE BRINK OF DREAMS

BY NADA RIYADH AND AYMAN EL AMIR

In a remote village in southern Egypt, a group of girls rebel by forming an all-female street theater troupe. They dream of becoming actresses, dancers and singers, challenging their families and villagers with their unexpected performances. Shot over four years, The Brink of Dreams follows them from childhood to womanhood, facing the most crucial choices of their lives.

Nada Riyadh is an Egyptian filmmaker. Her debut feature documentary film, Happily Ever After, co-directed with Ayman El Amir, premiered at IDFA 2016, while her short fiction film, The Trap, was selected in competition at La Semaine de la Critique, Cannes Film Festival, in 2019. She is an alumna of various international film programs including Cannes' La Fabrique, Next Step Program La Semaine de la Critique, Berlinale Talents, American Film Showcase and Film Independent.

Ayman El Amir is an Egyptian filmmaker. His recent works include the direction, with Nada Riyadh, of Happily Ever After, and the production of the short fiction The Trap. He has worked also as a script consultant for many labs and institutes including TorinoFilmLab, Doha Film Institute, Marrakech Atlas Atelier, DW Academy and Full Circle Lab.

LAW AND ORDER

BY FREDERICK WISEMAN

Law and Order surveys the wide range of work the police are asked to perform: enforcing the law, maintaining order, and providing general social services. The incidents shown illustrate how training, community expectations, socio-economic status of the subject, the threat of violence, and discretion affect police behavior.

AÏCHA

BY MEHDI M. BARSAOUI

Aya, in her late twenties, still lives with her parents in southern Tunisia and feels trapped in a life without prospects. One day, the minivan in which she commutes daily between her village and the hotel where she works crashes. As the sole survivor of the accident, she realizes it could be her chance to start a new life. She flees to Tunis under a new identity, but everything is soon compromised when she becomes the main witness to a police blunder.

Born in 1984 in Tunis, Mehdi M. Barsaoui graduated from the Institut Supérieur des Arts Multimédia, in editing. He then moved to Italy to complete his studies and graduated from DAMS in Bologna. He has directed three short films, which have been recognized and awarded at several international festivals. His first feature film, A Son, made its international debut in the official selection of the 76th Venice Film Festival, where it won two awards. Distributed in over twenty countries, A Son is the first Tunisian film to win a César Award, for Best Actor. Aïcha will be his second feature film.

TRANSAMAZONIA

BY PIA MARAIS

Rebecca, the daughter of missionary Lawrence Byrne, was declared a “miracle” after she survived a plane crash as a child, deep in the Amazon forest. Years later, Rebecca has become a miracle healer, sustaining their mission thanks to her growing fame. But when illegal loggers invade the land belonging to the indigenous people they’re evangelizing, Rebecca’s father manoeuvres them into the epicentre of this escalating conflict.

Pia Marais is a writer and director from South Africa and Sweden. She has written and directed 3 feature films. Her feature debut The Unpolished won the Tiger Award at the Rotterdam Film Festival in 2007. At Ellen’s Age screened in Competition in Locarno in 2010, and in more than 30 festivals, including Toronto. Layla Fourie was set in her home country South Africa and premiered in Competition at the 2013 Berlinale, receiving a Special Jury Mention. In 2018, she made her first documentary Cari Compagni for Arte. Transamazonia will be her fourth feature film.

IN THE NGUYEN KITCHEN

BY STÉPHANE LY-CUONG

Yvonne Nguyen, a French-Vietnamese actress, dreams of a successful career in musicals, to the great displeasure of her mother, who would like her to pursue a more serious path. When she has no choice but to move back to her mother's, both women are strangers to each other. But in the intimacy of the Vietnamese family restaurant's kitchen, they grow closer. Meanwhile, Yvonne is still after her dreams and finally gets the chance to audition for a big show.

Stéphane Ly-Cuong is a director, screenwriter and actor. He studied cinema at Paris VIII University, Brooklyn College and La Fémis (screenwriting). He directed several short films and several musical shows. In his work, he often explores issues the Vietnamese diaspora is facing. In the Nguyen Kitchen is his first feature, a musical.

SUZANNE

BY ANAÏS CAURA AND JOËLLE OOSTERLINCK

The life of Suzanne Noël (1878-1954) is worthy of a novel. Brilliant surgeon, emancipated woman in the early 20th Century, she saw in cosmetic surgery a solution for repairing injustices and making humans more beautiful, more equal and happier. After WWI, her professional life was more and more successful, but her private life turned into a drama... From Paris to Copenhagen, through a unique documentary combining animation and archive footage, let's dive into the birth of modern cosmetic surgery and discover the extraordinary journey of this pioneer who shaped her destiny at the tip of her scalpel.

Anaïs graduated from the École nationale supérieure des arts décoratifs in Paris in 2011 and is specialized in 2D animation cinema. She directed The man-woman case in 2017, an animated series in collaboration with Joëlle as writer. She also directed two animated collections for the French parliamentary channel: Le poème d'actu and L'Abécédaire. She created a series for France Télévisions called Rien qu'un verre visualizing testimonials about alcohol addiction.

Joëlle holds a Master's degree in Philosophy and is a graduate of Fémis' Screenwriting Workshop. As a documentary filmmaker, she directed portraits of artists for Arte and France Télévisions, including Art Spiegelman and Claire Bretécher. She also wrote and directed social documentaries for television.

YOU SHALL NOT MAKE AN IMAGE

BY KAOUTHER BEN HANIA

Bouchra, raised in a mausoleum dedicated to the saint Sidi Sardi, is confronted by a hostile imam who wants to turn her family home into a mosque. Her life is turned upside down when she meets Ahmed, a cameraman willing to help her make a film about the saint. This project plunges her into a captivating investigation, a saga through Tunisia and the 20th Century, that will shake her deeply-rooted beliefs. An initiation to love, myths and cinema.

Tunisian director Kaouther Ben Hania constantly explores the boundaries between fiction and documentary. Her latest film, Four Daughters, was nominated for the Best Documentary Academy Award® 2024 after being presented in Competition at the Cannes Film Festival. The film received numerous prestigious awards and was sold in over 40 territories. Her previous film The Man Who Sold His Skin was also nominated at the Academy Awards® for Best International Feature Film in 2021, representing Tunisia. Her film Beauty and The Dogs premiered at the Cannes Film Festival's Un Certain Regard section in 2017. All her other films have premiered at prestigious festivals including: Cannes, Venice, AFI, Los Angeles, Locarno, IDFA, Hot Docs Toronto. You Shall Not Make an Image will be her fifth film.

THE FLATS

BY ALESSANDRA CELESIA

In his tower-block apartment in New Lodge, Joe reenacts memories from his childhood amidst the “Troubles”. In this Catholic area of Belfast, the number of deaths was tragically significant. Joe is joined by neighbours Jolene, Sean, Angie, and others, all willingly participating in this process of revisiting the collective memories that shaped their lives and the district they live in.

“A powerful, timely and haunting film about a community living in the shadow of the pain and trauma of the Troubles in Northern Ireland.”
Variety

MISTY

THE ERROLL GARNER STORY

BY GEORGES GACHOT

Erroll Garner was a self-taught American Jazz pianist considered a genius by his peers. He juggled a tremendously successful career with a complex private life. Through the eyes of those who were closest to him, Misty - The Erroll Garner Story examines the destiny of a man who changed Jazz forever.

Georges Gachot is a French and Swiss filmmaker. He studied piano and musicology before directing several documentaries on musicians, composers and performers, such as Martha Argerich, Evening Talks (2002) and his quadrilogy on Brazilian music: Maria Bethânia, Musica É Perfume (2005), Rio Sonata (2010) and O Samba (2014). With Where are you, João Gilberto? (2018) he developed a new narrative form, in between fiction and documentary. Misty is his 6th feature film.
