LIFE OF AN ETOILE

BY JAMES BORT

Dorothee Gilbert has danced for 25 years at the Paris Opera and is now entering her final season. Her body is beginning to fail her, yet her art has never been greater. This final year takes us inside the world's most legendary ballets, through the iconic roles she has embodied and into the most private corners of a life shaped entirely by dance. Life of an Étoile is the portrait of a woman giving all she has left and asking, for the first time, who she is without the dance.

James Bort is a French photographer and film director whose work explores performance, identity and the body. He has collaborated with leading luxury brands including Dior, Cartier, Chanel and Hermès, creating both photographic campaigns and films.

His longstanding relationship with dance began with Danse(s) (2011). In 2015, he collaborated with choreographer Benjamin Millepied at the Paris Opera, creating Étoiles, a series of portraits of the company's Étoiles, published as a book and exhibited at the Opéra Bastille.

In 2017, he directed Rise Of A Star, starring Dorothee Gilbert and Catherine Deneuve, selected at the Tribeca Film Festival and shortlisted for the Academy Awards®. Life Of An Etoile his first feature documentary.

ON THE WAY

BY NATALIA DOŁGOWSKA

How far can we be from nature by trying to be in the middle of it?

Amid the serene beauty of Polish Tatra mountains, an asphalt road leads to a picture-perfect yet heavily overcrowded mountain lake. Generations of hikers shift as the seasons change, treading the same path - much to animals' dismay. By reversing the gaze, the film tries to look at humans from nature's perspective.

TAX ME! (IF YOU CAN!)

BY THOMAS LAFARGE

In January 2023, 200 millionaires from all over the world signed a petition demanding to pay their fair share to society. They implore governments to pay more taxes... but ironically, political leaders have done everything in their power to cut taxes for the wealthiest over the last decades. Inequality has reached record levels, with the richest 1% now monopolizing two-thirds of the wealth produced. From G20 backrooms to the lavish halls of Davos and NYC's penthouses, this investigation will take us to the front line of a hushed yet ruthless struggle. Between the rich who exploit loopholes to stay richer and richer, and those "tax rebels" using their influence to promote social justice, who will write the next rules?

THE LAST AMBASSADOR

BY NATALIE HALLA

The Afghan ambassador in Vienna, Manizha Bakhtari, has found herself in a bizarre situation since the Taliban took power: she represents a country whose old government has fled and whose new Taliban government is not recognized internationally. Despite financial and logistical isolation, Manizha Bakhtari is defying the Taliban to continue her fight for the rights of Afghan women and girls as an ambassador. Through her 'Daughters' programme, she enables secret education to Afghan schoolgirls while organising political resistance against the Taliban as an ambassador. Under increasingly difficult conditions, she becomes one of the most important international spokespersons for the women of Afghanistan, true to her motto 'peace is not the absence of war, but the presence of justice'.

HEART OF THE SEAL

BY TITO GONZÁLEZ GARCÍA

Since the 1980s, Western environmental movements have imposed strict regulations on seal hunting, upending Inuit cultural practices and societal organization. In Tasilaq, the Greenlandic Jonathansen family and the French ethnologist couple Pierre and Bernadette Robbe, work together to preserve this culture. Filmed over several generations (from the 1960s to the present day), this documentary traces their shared commitment. Giving a voice to Inuit hunters and their descendants, it questions the evolution of the Inuit way of life, as well as our relationship with animal suffering in consumer societies. Westerners wanted to stand for ecology and the animal cause... but at what cost for the Inuit?

SUPER PARADISE, THE STORY OF MYKONOS

BY STEVE KRIKRIS

In the 1970s, a small Greek island emerged as a symbol of hope, freedom, and self-expression. Mykonos was “paradise-on-earth,” and for some, it still is...

Over the past 70 years, Mykonos has experienced transformations that test the limits of imagination. It was dirt cheap, today it's unaffordable; it was “off-the-beaten-track,” today it's a top destination; it was inclusive, today it's exclusive. What happened? Using evocative archival footage, the film traces Mykonos' transformation from post-WWII poverty to its present-day allure, highlighting the island's dual nature. Exclusive interviews with locals and expats alike offer intimate, diverse perspectives on this complex and fascinating island.

VIRGINIA WOOLF: FOREVER A PIONEER

BY LISE BARON

A century after A Room of One's Own, Virginia Woolf stands as one of the most incisive and subversive voices in modern feminism. This documentary explores that essay and her visionary thinking: the need for women's financial independence, the early denunciation of economic and domestic inequalities, and the critique of the roles imposed on women. Through her bold political work, Woolf urged future generations to claim their own freedom. Let us dive into the legacy of a writer whose language and ideas still illuminate the struggles of the 21st century.

2666'S ROBERTO BOLAÑO, ON THE BORDER OF REALITY

BY TITO GONZÁLEZ GARCÍA WRITTEN BY ALICE GÉRAUD (SAMBRE, ANATOMY OF A CRIME)

2666's Bolaño: On the Border of Reality is a powerful documentary that bridges literature, true crime, and gender violence through the lens of Roberto Bolaño's acclaimed novel 2666. Centered on the real-life wave of femicides in Ciudad Juárez during the 1990s, the film examines how Bolaño, writing years before the global #MeToo movement, used fiction to expose the brutal realities of male violence against women.

By offering a cinematic investigation the film reveals how the book subverts the traditional crime narrative by focusing not on perpetrators, but by bringing visibility to women whose stories were buried by impunity.

DIANE KEATON, FIERCELY INDEPENDENT (WORKING TITLE)

BY CAMILLE JUZA

Diane Keaton has had a prolific career, appearing in more than 250 films. Her filmography immediately brings to mind her unmistakable New York chic, her breakthrough role in Coppola's The Godfather alongside Al Pacino, her confirmation with Woody Allen and Warren Beatty... and, more unexpectedly, her presence on screen at over 75 years old in box office hit comedies. But Diane Keaton's life and work have above all been a reflection of contemporary feminist struggles, of women's intergenerational battles for greater emotional, economic, intellectual, and sexual independence.

KRISTEN STEWART, DESIGNING THE FEMALE GAZE

BY ROMANE EDINGER

In 2009, at just 18, Kristen Stewart's popularity exploded when she played Bella Swan in Twilight. This saga became both an international generational phenomenon and criticized for disseminating the image of the passive woman, subject to the fantasies of men (those of vampire Edward and werewolf Jacob). After this success, the actress took a radical turn, and she is now a feminist and lesbian figure, determined to shake up the representation of women in cinema.

Using film clips, archive footage and interviews, the documentary will trace her career and the evolution of gender studies in cinema and pop culture. Who better than Kristen Stewart to understand the revolution of the last decade? What happened between 2009 and 2024 to move from a heroine shaped by the male gaze to a woman in control of her own desire?

North Korea is one of the most inaccessible and unknown countries in the world, and so is its cinema. Developed like an investigation, this documentary takes us to the other side of the 38th parallel, to discover unreleased – and even hidden – films. How were they produced? Do they reflect the reality of life in this much-condemned country? Is there a rare gem among these feature-films – a masterpiece of the kind found in Soviet cinema? Would we even be able to recognize such a gem, and leave behind our Western gaze?

DELACROIX: A SENSE OF LIBERTY

BY MARTIN FRAUDREAU

Liberty Guiding the People is definitely Delacroix's most iconic work. Contrary to what one might initially think, it does not depict the French Revolution of 1789, but rather the Second Revolution of 1830. Following the successive stages of its restoration by the Louvre, the film offers us an unprecedented look at this painting, the ultimate allegory of popular sovereignty. To tell its history today is to go beyond the realm of art history and understand its decisive historical context for France and Europe, and its resonance with current democratic and feminist struggles.

MICHELANGELO, SAINT OR SINNER?

BY CHIARA BATTISTINI

With David, Pietà or the ceiling of the Sistine Chapel, Michelangelo left behind one of the most emblematic works in art history. Portraying an artist genius, this documentary aims to demystify him and reveal the ordinary man behind the legend. The film explores the little-known and tumultuous story behind Michelangelo's Moses sculpture – an ambitious but controversial project commissioned to be Pope Julius II's Mausoleum, delayed by 40 years due to Vatican political struggles and almost ruined Michelangelo's reputation.
